Colorado's Finest Private Pheasant Hunting Preserve

RMR Weekly E-News

Hello RMR Fans!

The fast moving storm left us with some white stuff on the ground, but not nearly what Denver got, again! It came down slow and we ended up with about 3 inches or so. Perfect weather for hunting birds. The forecast is one that makes us lucky to live in Colorado...in the 50's by the end of the week.

We are closing in on the holiday hunting times and if you are thinking about a bird hunt or two, look at your schedule and give us a call. The Friday after Thanksgiving is still open as well as the weekend, but it tends to book up pretty quickly a few weeks out.

Our New Mexico Deer hunt was a big success with all 7 hunters getting their animals. You have to draw the tag to hunt NM, and it can be hard to do that, but if you want a good hunt for big deer, NM might be your bet. We will let you know about that hunt in December and January and what needs to take place to get you on the hunt with Roger and Audrey McQueen and Trophy Ridge Outfitters.

GOOSE AND DUCK HUNTING WITH STILLWATER OUTFITTERS

One of our long time friends and waterfowl outfitters, Stillwater Outfitters and Travis Reininger, says that the Duck hunting is awesome and the Goose Season is upon us. He normally charges $250 per gun for the hunts with a 2 gun minimum for Ducks and a 3 gun minimum for Geese. If you call and book a hunt before December 1st and tell him you are calling from RMR you can get the hunt for $50 off. He is doing this for RMR members and their guests only. Make certain you tell him when booking that you are with RMR. You don't have to hunt before December 1, just make the reservation. Call him at 303-659-8665 . The waterfowl hunting will be great this year and you don't want to miss the RMR SPECIAL!!

MEMBER NEWS

We got some sad news yesterday morning as one of our friends and former RMR member, Bill Miller, lost his son Spencer in a one car crash on Sunday morning east of Pueblo. Our prayers need to be with the Miller's during this difficult time.

RMR member Roger Grace from Holladay Grace Roofing told me that Gary Holladay passed way last night. Their company has been a big sponsor of the Service Group Shoot Out and of other charity projects we do for the community. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Chad Holladay and the entire family.

Another former member Steve Jeffries passed away last week at home in Colorado Springs.

Some good news....Mike Pfalmer is a proud grandpa and he is already Christmas shopping for the little girl!

HOLLIDAY MAIL FOR HEROES

In this season of hope and giving the American Red Cross and Pitney Bowes, Inc. have joined forces to invite Americans to "send a touch of home" to United States service members and veterans across the country and abroad. In its third year, the Holiday Mail for Heroes program is an opportunity to share joy and thanks with our service members throughout the holiday season by way of a greeting card.

Today over 1.4 million men and women serve in the U.S. armed forces and over 24 million veterans have served in the past. The holiday season is the perfect time to honor and extend a warm holiday greeting to those who've served and continue to do so.

The Red Cross has established an extensive process to ensure all cards sent to our service members are safe and arrive in time for the holidays. Holiday cards will be collected through a unique P.O. Box address from Monday, November 2 through Monday, December 7*.

First, cards from across the nation must be sent to this address:

Holiday Mail for Heroes

P.O. Box 5456

Capitol Heights, MD 20791-5456

Every card received will be screened for hazardous materials by Pitney Bowes and distributed to participating Red Cross chapters nationwide. Once the cards arrive at the Red Cross chapters, they are sorted and reviewed by volunteers who then distribute them to service members, their families and veterans in communities across the country.

SAFE FOR SALE

I have a Browning Sterling Safe here in my fiancé's garage that I don't need because I have my own safe. So I was wondering if anyone via those channels would be interested in it. It is basically brand new. I think it retails for about $2900 new. I'd be willing to let it go for $1750 as long as the buyer agrees to move the beast. Call John Russell at 303-887-4508

TWO FOR THE ROAD

Power of the Badge

DEA officer stops at a ranch in Texas, and talks with an old rancher.

He tells the rancher, "I need to inspect your ranch for illegally grown drugs."

The rancher says, "Okay, but do not go in that field over there," as he points out the location.

The DEA officer verbally explodes saying, "Mister, I have the authority of the Federal Government with me."

Reaching into his rear pants pocket, he removes his badge and proudly displays it to the rancher. "See this badge? This badge means I am allowed to go wherever I wish.... On any land.

No questions asked or answers given.

"Have I made myself clear? Do you understand? "

The rancher nods politely, apologizes, and goes about his chores.

A short time later, the old rancher hears loud screams and sees the DEA officer running for his life chased by the rancher's big Santa Gertrudis bull..... With every step the bull is gaining ground on the officer, and it seems likely that he'll get gored before he reaches safety. The officer is clearly terrified.

The rancher throws down his tools, runs to the fence and yells at the top of his lungs.....

"Your badge.. Show him you're BADGE! "

+++++

This guy was pulled over for running a stop sign. When the cop checked the man's driver's license, he said, "You're wearing glasses on your ID and you're not now. I'm going to have to give you a ticket."

The guy said, "Officer, I have contacts."

The cop said, "Look, buddy, I don't care who you know, ... I'm giving you a ticket."
