Colorado's Finest Private Pheasant Hunting Preserve

RMR Weekly E-News

Good Afternoon RMR Folks!

We are getting some of the blowing snow, but not the amount that is hitting Denver. Colorado Springs only has a few inches and it is windy, but the weekend is supposed to be nice and 60 degrees by Monday. This weekend will be a great time to hunt for sure. We missed the brunt of this storm for certain!! Lucky US!! Clean living is what my Mom always says....

As you know I don't normally send more than one email a week, and I am sorry if I have clogged your email box (laughing now!!) with info this week, but it was timely.

Several folks have asked again for the info on the video from Alaska. Go to the RMR website and click on NEWSLETTERS, then go to the WEEKLY NEWS and then click on the ALASKA HUNT TV SHOW and see the pictures and you can view the video from that page too. Maybe I wasn't clear enough before.

DON'T FORGET DAYLIGHT SAVINGS THIS WEEKEND

Saturday night don't forget to set your clocks BACK one hour. We still will hunt at 8am and 1pm, so if you are early you can have another cup of coffee! Also...be careful when you are out on Saturday night and early evening. There are lots of little ghosts and goblins that will be getting sick from the candy you give them on Halloween.

MILITARY HUNTING BANK STILL NEEDS YOUR HELP

We continue to take soldiers hunting at your club. We have had one member, who wishes to remain anonymous, that has donated hunts for 12 soldiers a week from the 43rd Sustainment Brigade at Fort Carson, but with the 4th ID arriving at the post there are a lot of other soldiers that would like to come out and hunt if we can take them.

Since 2003 we have taken more than 2000 men and women in uniform hunting at the club and thanks to the generosity of our members we have been able to do this. We are continuing to take active duty enlisted soldiers from all branches of the services and are asking again for donations of hunts so we can continue to do this. RMR has donated 50 hunts already, but the HUNTING BANK is empty.

If you would like to donate one or two of your hunts, let me know and we will put them in the bank for these fine folks in uniform. Just drop me an email and we will take it off of your membership.

We have a list of members who would like to take a soldier with them while they are hunting and we will continue to do this. If you have dogs and would like to take a soldier or two, just let me know and I will arrange it. Even if you think I have your name on the list, and are willing to take a hunter with you, send it to me again and I will start fresh again this season.

We Thanks for all that you have done and do for our servicemen and women...you don't realize how much they appreciate it!!

Just send me an email if you would like to contribute to the cause or if you would like to be on call to take them hunting.

ONE FOR THE ROAD

When Mozart passed away, he was buried in a churchyard. A couple days later, the town drunk was walking through the cemetery and heard some strange noises coming from the area where Mozart was buried.

Terrified, the drunk ran and got the priest to come and listen to it.

The priest bent close to the grave and heard some faint, unrecognizable music coming from the grave. Frightened, the priest ran and got the town magistrate.

When the magistrate arrived, he bent his ear to the grave, listened for a moment, and said, "Ah, yes, that's Mozart's Ninth Symphony, being played backwards."

He listened a while longer, and said, "There's the Eighth Symphony, and it's backwards, too. Most puzzling."

So the magistrate kept listening; "There's the Seventh... the Sixth...the Fifth..." Suddenly the realization of what was happening dawned on the magistrate; he stood up and announced to the crowd that had gathered in the cemetery. "My fellow citizens, there's nothing to worry about. It's just Mozart decomposing."
