Colorado's Finest Private Pheasant Hunting Preserve

RMR Weekly E-News

Hello RMR Faithful!

Isn't it amazing how the weather turns a little cool just before Dove season? It did it again....cool temps have started moving the birds south. I suspect that you will be able to find some birds around Lamar and La Junta and further south.

Do you know where the names for the areas originated? It was 13 years ago yesterday that my Dad passed away. RALPH is his name and we named the area on the central and north part of the ranch for him...before he died, fortunately. We miss him every day, but know that he is in heaven watching all of the dogs and the hunters. Probably laughing at all of the misses too!

GUN SAFETY CLASS SATURDAY AUG 28

Our next basic pistol gun safety class is scheduled for Saturday August 28th at RMR. The class is perfect for those of you who have been shooting forever, or for those that have never shot before. Cost is still $80 and starts at 8am and runs until 4pm. Once you have passed the course, you can get your concealed carry permit in Colorado, if that is something that you want to do. Email me for details or to register.

We are also starting the intermediate classes that will teach you how to draw from a holster, shoot moving targets and deal with malfunctions and reloading your handgun while shooting. If you have passed the basic pistol course and would like to take the next level of courses, email me and we can get you on the class list. We only teach 6 students at a time.

RMR MEMBER NEWS

Sarah Steward, wife of Dean, has been diagnosed with cancer. She is in treatment in Seattle and Colorado Springs. She tells me that since they found it early and that they are aggressively treating her, the prognosis is good. Keep the Stewards in your prayers.

SIGHT IN YOUR RIFLES

We added a 200 and 300 yard range for rifles. Since the Rampart Range location closed for shooting there is not a place for people to shoot. We will be open for non-members to sight in their rifles daily from 12 noon until 6pm. The cost is $20 per person. We will only offer this until Sept 30. Members are still no charge, but if you bring a guest the cost is $20 for them. You will need to check in and pick up a rifle standard in the clubhouse to take out to the range.

ELECTRONIC COLLARS BANNED IN WALES

March 24 2010- Wales Bans Shock collars- also known as 'remote training collars' e-collars', 'bark collars, 'invisible fences' for being cruel and inhumane. Anyone caught using a shock collar in Wales will get a fine of 20,000 pounds or 6 months in jail. The rest of the UK is expected to follow suit eventually, but I think North America will take a while... other countries that have banned or severely restricted Shock Collars are- Denmark, Australia, Germany, Switzerland, Austria, and Slovenia.

TWO FOR THE ROAD

A very shy guy goes into a bar and sees a beautiful woman sitting at the other end. After an hour of gathering up his courage he finally goes over to her and asks, tentatively, "Um, would you mind if I chatted with you for a while?" To which she responds by yelling, at the top of her lungs, "No, I won't sleep with you tonight!" By now, the entire bar is staring at them. Naturally, the guy is hopelessly and completely embarrassed and he slinks back to his table. After a few minutes, the woman walks over to him and apologizes. She smiles at him and says, "I'm sorry if I embarrassed you. You see, I'm a graduate student in psychology and I'm studying how people respond to embarrassing situations." To which he responds, at the top of his lungs, "What do you mean $200!"

The boss had listened in sympathetic silence as Mario went through the reasons why he needed, and felt he deserved, a raise. Then, with a compassionate smile, the CEO patted the younger man on the shoulder. "Yes, Mario," he said kindly, "I know you can't get married on the salary I'm paying you... and some day you'll thank me for it."
